STATE AND NATION WILL VOTE TO-DAY

Indications Everywhere Point To Democratic Triumph In The General Elections Throughout The Country In The Great Battle of Ballots.

LOCAL INTEREST IN THE CONTEST

Situation in The Doubtful States in The North And West.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

New Hanover, Sixth District and North Carolina Will Roll Up Their Old-Time Majorities.—Results Are Important.

ELECTION TODAY!

Every State and territory in the Union will hold elections today on issues of paramount importance in varying degree. The keenest interest is manifested everywhere and the signs of the times are for a great Democratic victory, not only in the State, but the Nation. The Star has arranged, through the courtesy of Messrs. Howard & Wells, of the Bijou, to display the election bulletins as fast as they are received by means of a stereopticon on a large canvass across the street from its building on Princess street. These bulletins will be flashed across the street as fast as they are received by wire in the building and our friends and the general public are invited to come down and witness them.

Election of State officers, judges of the Supreme Court, railroad commissioners and other State officers will be held today in 38 States, a majority of the States will elect members of the Legislature and upon the result will depend the complexion of the sixty-second Congress of the United States.

Locally, there was perhaps never greater interest in an election on an off year and reports from everywhere indicate that this is certainly going to be a Democratic year. New Hanover county, the Sixth Congressional District and North Carolina are expected to roll up an old-time majority and advices on the eve of election seem to indicate this result. Associated Press telegrams printed in this morning's paper tell the news from the Nation, while special telegrams and other reports indicate what is to be done today in North Carolina.

In New Hanover this year for the first time in a general election, the Australian ballot will be used. The polls open this morning at sunrise and close at sunset. It is important that every Democratic voter go to the polls early and vote. The Australian ballot upon its first use needs a careful study by the voter and all should fully inform themselves before entering the booth for the purpose of voting. The Democratic County Executive Committee has had prepared a number of sample ballots for the examination of voters and these may be found at the polls outside the booths. When explained the ballot is very simple and it is hoped that every voter in the city will take the trouble to proceed at once to discharge a debt of obligation to the Democratic party in North Carolina by going to the polls and voting the straight ticket. All that is necessary to do this is to enter the election booth, be provided with a ticket and simply make a cross mark in the circle to the left of the word "Democratic" at the top of the first column on the printed ballot, no other mark being necessary. If a voter desires not to cast his vote for any particular candidate on the Democratic ticket, it will then be necessary to go down the list and check each name the voter desires to cast his ballot for, BUT IF THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC TICKET IS DESIRED TO BE VOTED, IT MAN BE DONE WITH A CROSS MARK WITH THE INDELIBLE PENCIL PROVIDED IN THE BOOTH IN THE CIRCLE AT THE TOP AND AT ONE SIDE OF THE WORD "DEMOCRATIC" ON THE TICKET. The second column of the ballot is the Republican ticket, instructions about how to vote, doubtless having been given by the leaders of that party.

It is very desirable that New Hanover this year again roll up its old-time majority. New Hanover owes a debt of gratitude to the State for what was done to wrest her from the thralldom of '98 and anything but a full vote would be disappointing to the State at large. The Democratic candidates are named at the head of the editorial column of the Star on Page 4 today. There must be no scratches or erasures on the ticket and if one is "spoiled," by the voter in the booth, it must be returned to the registrar who will provide another. Democratic voters are asked to bear these things in mind and to use the indelible pencil or pen and ink furnished in the election booth. Democratic workers will be at the polls to explain anything that may not be clear to the voter.

Returns at Court House.

Chairman Marsden Bellamy, of the New Hanover Democratic County Executive Committee, has arranged to receive tonight at the Court House not only the returns from the city but from the Nation by special Western Union wire run into the building. Every citizen, of whatever political faith, is invited to come out and hear the returns, which will be without charge.

In North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—A confident sort of calm settled down upon State Democratic headquarters here tonight, following the long period of strenuous work that has characterized the place

BUTLER AT JACKSONVILLE

Had Run In With Duffy, Koonce and Thompson and Retreated—Harangue in Court House—Villification and Abuse.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Jacksonville, N. C., November 7.—This was the regular day for the Democratic candidates to speak at Jacksonville and the speaking had been widely advertised for several weeks. A few days ago a notice was posted, which had no name signed to it, stating that Butler would address the people at this place on November 7th and stated that he was such an orator that no Democrat dared to meet him in joint debate.

They did this without consulting or asking for any time and undertook to ride rough shod over the people of the county and force Butler to speak on this date. When Chairman Koonce was approached he told Dr. Gilman that he would see if there could be any arrangement made by which he could speak, so after consultation it was agreed among the friends of both parties that Butler should have 1 1-2 hours and begin at 12 o'clock and end promptly at the expiration of his time. When Butler first came up he mounted the judge's stand and when the announcement was made, he began his tirade as to who owned the Court House and who was boss of this business and took up the greater portion of his time in such talk; said that he told the people when he came here that he would talk there or on the Court House square, finally he admitted that if the arrangements had been made by his friends that he would try to live up to it and then he took up all of his time and about twenty minutes more in abusing Simmons, Daniels, Overman and most all other Democrats that had spoken in this campaign.

It was such a tirade of abuse that even those who are near Republicans were disgusted and it was only those who were bound to the idols that applauded him, which was a little knot of negroes and a few white people. When he had used his entire time and about 20 minutes over he then said that if anybody wanted to ask him any questions he would answer there or go down on the street. He was then politely informed that he had spoken his time but he might answer a question and that was the bond question but he failed to satisfy even his own followers. He never denied the advertisement nor he never denied signing the advertisement in the New York Evening Post and other papers, advertising himself and others to collect fradulent bonds.

He tried to tell Mr. Duffy that if he wanted to act discourteously he could do so and he would go down to the street. Mr. Duffy walked up in front of him and shook his finger in his face and told him he had extended the time by courtesy and that he was not acting courteously in using over time and not living up to the agreement. But while all this was going on Mr. Koonce undertook to tell Butler that he knew and Butler knew and every other man knows why the people of this State had not sent anybody to meet him. He reminded him that when a man was put on trial for a criminal offense in this State that while allowing the criminal to testify in his own behalf that it did not allow the criminal to argue the case with the court. Koonce told him that the advertisement showed by his name appearing at the bottom that he wrote it and he never denied it.

Butler simply ran today from Duffy, Thompson, Koonce and others who would have skinned him alive if he had remained in the Court House. In spite of the agreement he took a little knot of his followers out on the street while the decent element of the crowd remained in the Court House and heard excellent speeches from Duffy and Thompson.

Butler showed the white feather today, from these three men and showed the coward that he is. His speech was just a rehash of the fetid vomit that he puked in the faces of the people at Raleigh last Friday. His words are so foul that surely he must have to wash his mouth with some disinfectant before he kisses his wife else she would die with black death.

Butler left this afternoon for Wilmington, spending the night at The Orton and going to his home in Sampson to vote tomorrow.

GERMANY'S ACTION DANGEROUS STEP

Rejection of American Proposal May Strain Commercial Relations.

POTASH CONTRACTS ALL OFF

Disagreement Officially Reported to the State Department—American Potash Interests Issue a Statement.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—Following the refusal of the German government to accede to the proposal of the United States on the potash dispute, the commission representing the American potash interests today issued a statement on the subject.

The statement, which is signed by Charles H. MacDowell, Charles Henry Dempwolf, James A. Moncure and Benjamin H. Brewster, Jr., refers to the action of the German government as "a dangerous step in international commercial relations" and declares that the competing group of mines is thereby prevented from selling at a materially lower price than the syndicate, of which the Prussian government itself is a member. It asserts also that the failure to reach an agreement stops the fulfillment of contract obligations.

"The law passed by the German government," continues the statement, "has been so contrived that it applies only to American contracts, and those contracts are largely with mines owned by Americans. The law was framed, as Americans were informed, by members of the German syndicate, to force either cancellation of the contracts of heir repudiation.

"The American government protested against the bill, owing to its unconcealed effect and received German official assurances that the law would in no way invalidate or impair American contracts. This is what has happened:

Goods costing $20 a ton in the United States are taxed $22 alone making the cost to American buyers $42 while the German potash syndicate sells in the United States $36 a ton.

"The tax, if paid, will cost American contractors and the ultimate consumers more than $6,000,000 a year for seven years, besides placing the German syndicate in full control of American soil fertility and of explosives and chemicals as far as they are affected by potash."

State Department Informed.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The State Department was officially advised today of the failure of potash negotiations in a cablegram from Ambassador Hill and Commercial Adviser Davis. The latter, the dispatch added, would leave at once for Vienna, to consider certain trade relations with Austria.

No definite decision will be reached by this government in the German controversy until the return to Washington of Secretary Knox when the whole matter will be laid before him. The Secretary is expected back tomorrow after casting his vote in Pittsburg.

The situation is regarded by department officials as delicate and their view of its seriousness reflective in he reserve in which they discussed the matter pending the return of Secretary Knox.

BICKETT AT GOLDSBORO.

Delights Great Audience On Eve of Election Day.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 7.—Enthusiasm ran high tonight during a speech delivered in the Opera House by Attorney General T. W. Bickett and the large crowd of citizens present enjoyed one of the finest speeches ever made in this city full of humor and sledge hammer blows to the Republican party. The speaker led off by saying he was rejoiced and happy to say that during all his travels the past few months the outlook for a great Democratic majority was nothing less than beautiful and the party was on the eve of reaching a most glorious victory. A great speech and the humorous and witty sayings of the brilliant speaker had his audience aroused to the greatest enthusiasm ever witnessed at a public speaking in this city, being obliged to pause during his entire speech while merry shouts of laughter and "peanut whistles" were re-echoeing throughout the building.

SLAYER OF MACON MAN IS LYNCHED

Negro Admitted Murder and Was Hanged to Bridge By Angry Mob.

EVADED ARREST THREE DAYS

Jailor Was Overpowered When Mob Returned a Second Time—Victim Was Dragged From Jail—Escaped.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 7.—A negro named Walker, who killed Marshal Chas. Bush two weeks ago, was taken from the Macon county jail by a mob and lynched about 9:30 o'clock tonight. His body was strung up over the water from the Flint river bridge. Walker had only been captured about two hours previous.

Walker, after killing Bush, was the prey of a man hunt which lasted three days, bu he made his escape. This morning Walker went to a house of a negro named Jones, in Hounton county, was recognized and his arrest quickly followed. He then admitted killing Bush.

Walker spent all day in jail. At 8 o'clock tonight a mob bent on lynching, put in its appearance, but dispersed. At 9 o'clock it returned overpowered the jailor and dragged the negro to the bridge which is but a few hundred yards away. The noose was tied, one end fastened to the bridge, and the negro with his hands bound, was shoved off. The drop broke his neck instantly.

FAISON-BUTLER JOINT CANVASS.

Republican Nominee, George E. Butler, Refuses to Meet Dr. Faison in Clinton.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Clinton, N. C., Nov. 7.—The joint canvass between Dr. John M. Faison, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Third Congressional District, and his Republican opponent, Maj. George E. Butler, closed at this place on Saturday when fully 2,000 people were present. Three-fifths of the assemblage were Democrats from Sampson county while many came from Duplin and Wayne counties who had been aroused and enthused by the vigorous and masterful canvass of their champion Democrat, Dr. Faison, all anxious to hear him give one more drubbing to George Butler.

Owing to Butler's failure to meet Dr. Faison at Mingo, as arranged, Butler claimed that he should be allowed in the Clinton discussion the additional time which would have been his had he appeared at Mingo. This, Dr. Faison flatly refused to accede to as Butler hadpurposely refused to go to Mingo and again refused proper division of time in his own town of Clinton. Thus Butler threw up the sponge, which was nothing more nor less than Dr. Faison had fully expected, as Butler was growing desperate during the past week under the severe lashing of the Democratic champion who has been pouring hot shot into him, Mary Ann and his reconstruction bonds record, and the "nigger party" to which they belong. The up-shot of the disagreement about the division of time was that Dr. Faison spoke inside the Court House while Butler spoke to a crowd on the outside. The Court House was packed with people to hear Dr. Faison, his audience including many ladies, Democrats, and some Republicans. Fully three-fifths of the crowd were plainly with Dr. Faison.

Maj. Butler and his Republican friends saw too late their own mistake in not meeting Dr. Faison, but the Republican nominee has long ago "had enough" and was anxious for any excuse to keep out of reach of Dr. Faison. Butler's friends also knew it too well, for their candidate has stood a poor showing under the terrible lambastings of the Democratic champion.

"To your tents, Oh, Israel!"

DEWEY PARDONED.

Goldsboro Man Granted Executive Clemency by the Governor.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—Thomas W. Dewey is pardoned by Governor Kitchin from the remainder of his six-year term in the penitentiary for embezzlement as cashier of a Newbern bank that he wrecked and walked out of the prison this evening a free man, hastening to Goldsboro, where his aged mother is critically ill. His sentence would have expired December 7th, so that he gets release from only 30 days service through the pardon. Petitions and personal appeals for the pardon have been pouring in to the Governor for months past and the announcement of the pardon is by no means a surprise. The official statement from the executive office state that there was a strong petition for the pardon, in which the trial judge, the solicitor and many citizens joined; that he has made a good prisoner and that it is believed that this clemency can be bestowed and still justice be satisfied.

ENGINEERS VOTE ON GENERAL STRIKE

Sixty-one Railroads West, South and North of Chicago Involved.

ADJUSTMENT OF DIFFERENCES

Seven Per Cent. Increase of Wages and Question of Conditions Are Involved—Chief Stone Says Will be Unanimous.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—A strike vote will be taken among engineers of 6- railroads west, south and north of Chicago, including the Illinois Central, following termination today of the negotiations between the roads and grand officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which had been in session since September 26th.

Difference in wage increases of approximately seven per cent., and alteration of working conditions stood between the negotiators. Grand Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood, who has been leading the railroad men in their demands, said today he believed the strike vote would be unanimously in favor of suspension of work and that the enginemen would have expressed their desire by December 10th. Immediately thereafter, he said, a last opportunity would be given the railroads to meet the workers and if they ignored that opportunity, within five hours every engine west of Chicago, on all branches of service would be stilled.

The whole question arose from the decision of the engine men themselves in convention at Detroit, Mich., last Spring. In a three weeks' session it was decided that the existing scale, in effect since February 1907, was unsatisfactory and that working conditions had been imposed by railroads which should be eliminated. The grand officers were named to meet the railroads and present the demands.

The general working conditions of which the engine-drivers complain include, among other things the following:

Drivers of the Malet compound engines, which do practically the work of two engines, and entail a correspondingly greater responsibility and capability, receive the same wages as other drivers of high power engines of much lesser capacity.

Engineers wish to be relieved of the toil of preparing their engine for travel and of caring for them after runs. Switching time should be paid for on a different basis.

The magnitude of the wage question is evidenced by a statement that the 7 per cent. wage difference now standing between the drivers and the railroads, means approximately $2,800,000 a year. The cost of alterations of the working conditions, minor considerations in the conference would be less than $500,000, it was asserted.

"When the conferences began," said Chairman W. B. Scott, of the conference committee, "the engineers' demands approximated a 27 per cent. increase. This finally was brought down to 17 per cent. We finally agreed to a 10 per cent. increase, totalling $3,480,000 for the 61 roads we represent and here we both stuck. The $6,528,000 increase they stuck for was more than we could concede."

Later it was made clear that the roads which are parties to the wage conference did not include all lines west of Chicago, but the chief roads west, south and north and from Fort Williams west in Canada, excepting the Wabash lines and several minor systems.

This wage increase demand of the engineers were referred to by representatives of the railroads before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Chicago recently as one of the reasons why higher freight rates ought to be charged by the railroads.

In view of this, the sudden cessation of conferences between the enginemen and the roads today caused considerable surprise, since before the Commerce Commission the roads used the full figure of the engineers demand—27 per cent. increase—as a basis for rate argument.

ANOTHER JOINT DEBAE.

Editor McNeill Meets Fleet Rose Cooper at Burgaw.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Nov. 7.—The citizens of Burgaw and a great many farmers from the county had the pleasure of hearing another joint discussion. Especially was the discussion pleasing to the Democrats. The occasion was heralded as a Republican meeting—F. R. Cooper of Clinton, N. C., being the speaker, but the Democrats thought it wise to have a champion present and a very short while before the meeting opened a committee selected Mr. Laughlin McNeill, editor of the Pender Chronicle, to reply to the Republican speaker. If it had been known Mr. McNeill would be one of the speakers the Court House would doubtless have been crowded, but such not being the case, the crowd was rather small though very enthusiastic. Although Mr. McNeill's speech was entirely extemporaneous, it was easily evident that he outclassed his opponent as an orator and debator. The Democrats are jubilant over the prospects for a splendid Democratic victory tomorrow.

HORAN WINS BIG RACE.

Made a New Record for 250-Mile Event in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., November 4.—Traveling steadily at a clip of 72 miles an hour, Joe Horan, driving a Lozier car, today won the 240-mile speedway grand prize and set a new American record for distance.

His time of three hours, 26 minutes and 15.10 seconds, beats the previous record of four hours, 38 minutes and 57 4-5 seconds, made by Burman, in a Buick, at the Indianapolis Speedway on August 19th. 1909, and comes within four minutes of equalling the world's record for 300 miles, made at Brooklands, England. Horan took down $3,000 of the $5,000 prize offered for the race.

SENATOR SIMMONS ON BUTLER

Laid on the Lash in Final Great Rally at Newbern Last Night—Big Gathering of His Fellow Citizens.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 7.—Amid the greatest enthusiasm Hon. S. M. Brinson introduced tonight Senator F. M. Simmons to a great gathering of his fellow citizens and for nearly two hours Democrats and good citizens rejoiced to hear his profound description of living issues.

The special tax bonds, the tariff and the personnel of the Republican party leaders in North Carolina, were handled in a way that left no comfort to Republicans in the audience. His arraignment of Butler was terrible. The campaign closed here with the powerful plea of Senator Simmons and the result of tomorrow's election is expected to show an increase in the Democratic majority in this county.

Paying his respects to Butler, Senator Simmons said in part:

"During all these years Butler has been more violent in his abuse of me than the rest of them because on account of his pre-eminence in villainy, I have had to lay the lash on his back somewhat heavier than on the rest. The scars are there yet and will remain until his dying day. Butler who took the prize out of the whole student body at the University for cowardice vaunts his courage and says the Democrats are afraid to meet him in joint debate. Democrats used to meet Butler in joint debate and generally overwhelmed him but that was before he lost his character, that was before he betrayed his State and became an outcast. What decent man would be willing to debate with a man who has betrayed his State for lucre, who is despised and held in contempt by the decency of the State, who recognizes no obligation to speak the truth and does not possess the elementary virtues of either honor or shame. How can a man of honor debate with such a character and remain a gentleman? If any man in the State thought we should debate with Butler, his disgusting conduct at Raleigh last Friday should convince him of his mistake. With a coarseness and vulgarity surprising even when coming from this smart rascal and mortal idiot, Butler, heaps vile abuse upon me as well as others. He says I don't look people in the face. He complains of the color of my eyes. The thing about my eyes that troubles Butler is the power, so often displayed to his undoing, of ferreting out his manifold villainies and discovering the secret import of his humguggeries.

"His reason for singling me out for vulgar and coarse abuse is the boldness I have shown for 20 years in exposing his humguggeries and rascalities. My character and eyes are as much an object of aversion and dread to Butler as are those of the lion to the hynea.

"If the good people of this State should show a proper consideration for its reputation and interest instead of putting this adventurer and traitor in charge of the State through the Republican party, they will give such a rebuke to his effrontery as will send him back to the vultures, whose emissary he is with such an emphatic repudiation that the State will be forever rid of his disgusting presence."

The big popular subscription contest inaugurated by the Star eight weeks ago came to a close with the sounding of the alarm in the Contest Department of the paper at 7 o'clock yesterday evening and immediately thereafter the Contest Manager, his assistants and representatives of the various contestants repaired to the county Court House with the sealed ballot box containing the votes as cast up to the last moment, agreed upon a board of canvassers to finally pass upon the returns, and announced the final result of the campaign as announced above.

It is particularly gratifying to the Star to know that the final count was without the slightest strife or bickering among the representatives of the contest and that the judges selected from the contestants themselves were able to give an unqualified certificate of award to each and every one. The only pang of regret is that all the contestants in the various districts who have worked so faithfully and consistently could not win one of the 34 prizes that were offered. But the matter was entirely in the hands of the representatives of the contestants themselves, and everyone was assured a "square deal." There are a number in several of the districts who lost by a very narrow margin and it is particularly regretful that these should not have won, but such was the decree of fate and the paper wisnes to thank them most sincerely for their efforts and to express the regret that under the rules of the contest they cannot be more substantially rewarded.

The closing day of the contest witnessed a general activity among the leading contestants and quite a number of representatives of contestants came in on the morning's trains from the out-of-town districts and remained with the contest department until the end. Practically all the winners had "up their sleeves" a large number of votes in reserve and that told the story at the final counting. From the standpoint of an increase of its subscription list to the largest ever attained by a Wilmington newspaper the contest was a great success. The contest was entered upon, not as a money-making proposition, but as a circulation builder and that result was very handsomely attained. The Star wishes to thank all the contestants and their friends for their efforts to make this one of the greatest subscription contests ever pulled off in this section of the State.

The prize winners have the Star's happiest felicitations and if they will call at the Contest Department, across the street from the Star building, or notify the Contest Department at any time within the next few days, the prizes will be formally awarded.

For the final count at the Court House last night a large number of contestants and their representatives were present and many from the general public who were anxious to hear the result. The telephone in the Star office and in the Contest Department was kept a-jingle practically all night with inquiries for the "returns" and these were promptly given, both to people in the city and by long distance telephone to parties outside the city. After the ballot box in the contest office was sealed and carried to the Court House, the representatives of the contestants got together and appointed an official canvassing board, who first gave the certificate produced below and later the second one as to the final count:

ONLY ONE "BEST"

Wilmington People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Wilmington who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Wilmington. Here's Wilmington testimony:

Miss Maggie Rivenbark, 105 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I found great benefit through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills procured at R. R. Bellamy's Drug Store. I suffered from constant, dull pains in my back and some days I could hardly get about. My kidneys were weak and I was caused much annoyance. I tried several remedies but nothing gave me relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. They proved to be just what I required and in a short time cured me so completely that my trouble has never returned."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Enough Style Comfort Enough Enough Wear

Our "Terry Special" grade at $5.00 equals the best custom, bench-made, shoe.

Look for the Bell on the Sole.

You don't know it, but every manufacturer of shoes knows that he can play up any one feature he cares to in producing a shoe to sell. He can make it stylish at the expense of wear and comfort, or comfortable by cutting into style and wear, or he can turn out a shoe so heavy and stocky it will never wear out—but there will be no semblance of style left and the foot forced to wear it would be in prison. He also knows that a nicely balanced combination of these three shoe virtues is about the hardest problem in shoe making.

The CRADDOCK SHOE

$3.50 All Leathers $4.00

owes its reputation and its many friends to the fine sense of proportion of style, comfort and durability, each to each. You'll find a call on the Craddock dealer in your town a very profitable visit. See him and learn how truly good Craddock shoes look and feel. They wear 30 days longer than any other shoe at the price.

BACK FROM THE SHIPYARD.

Revenue Cutter Seminole Returns to Port from Newport News.

Returning to port yesterday from the shipyard at Newport News, Va., where a new turbo-generator was installed, the revenue cutter Seminole, Capt. Crisp, commanding, will soon begoin her Winter cruising along the North Carolina coast.

The new turbo-generator was necessary for the wireless equipment and lighting purposes in addition to the present dynamo on the cutter. The cutter has been away from port for some two weeks and during the absence of the vessel from Wilmington Capt. Crisp assumed command again.

Third Lieutenant of Engineers Doran has been granted a leave of absence of 30 days and while he is away Lieutenant W. E. Lukens, of the revenue cutter Windom, has been assigned to this post.

WILMINGTON'S CUSTOM HOUSE

Mr. J. B. Mercer Quotes Correspondence From Treasury Department—Mr. Godwin's Record and his Claim.

Editor Star:—The statement made some days ago that it would be two years before work on Wilmington's new Custom House would be undertaken was premature and evidently without authority. Congressman Godwin's attention was called to this statement, and he at once, with his usual and characteristic energy and best efforts in behalf of Wilmington, got in communication with the Treasury Department at Washington and only a day or so ago received the following letter which speaks for itself:

Treasury Department,
Washington, D. C., Oct. 28, 1910.

Honorable H. L. Godwin, Dunn, North Carolina,

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th instant, relative to the early construction of the proposed new Custom House building at Wilmington, North Carolina.

While the Department appreciates the necessity for getting the building in question under construction as early as possible, the general policy has been followed of taking up the buildings in the order in which the sites are acquired. The delay in taking up the Wilmington building is, therefore, entirely due to the long time which elapsed before the site of the building was finally vested under the control of the government, which action was not consummated until June 30th, 1910.

At the present time there are about 100 buildings to be taken up before Wilmington can be reached in the regular order, and it will, therefore, be ten months before the preliminary sketches are begun.

Respectfully,
JOHN T. CURTIS,
Assistant Secretary.

While the above letter says it will be something like ten months before plans and work on Wilmington's new building will have begun even that is far from being two years and Mr. Godwin proposes to busy himself in Wilmington's behalf on this score as soon as he reaches Washington next month. He has hopes of having work started on this building by early next Spring instead of at the end of ten months and will urge such action as the result of Wilmington's importance, using the increased growth of business and statistics for this port as an argument with which to go before the Department. Congressman Godwin has always been industrious adn energetic in his efforts for and in behalf of Wilmington and Wilmington's interests and while here last week expressed the hope that he would soon be able to witness the scene of Wilmington's mechanics and laborers working on Uncle Sam's magnificent new Custom House in this city before very long. Having been reared on the farm and learned the lesson of manual labor, Mr. Godwin knows how to sympathize with the average laboring man and will do everything within his power to expedite the work of building our new Custom House and thereby furnish labor for Wilmington's labor and mechanics.

It is needless to say that Mr. Meares' hot blast in Saturday evening's Dispatch, telling Democrats who to vote for and what their duties are will be ignored in the future, as the people of Wilmington have been wont to ignore the advice of counsel of Mr. Meares in the past. Of course, everybody understands that Mr. Meares was pleading for a larger vote in his home county, but should have adopted cleaner methods for getting a larger vote in his home county than that of trying to pull down and besmirch the character and reputation of so honorable a gentleman as his political competitor. Instead of increasing Mr. Meares' vote in this county his letter will lose him many votes and increase Mr. Godwin's majority by healthy numbers.

With the early completion of the proposed inland waterway by way of this city, or a different route by which Wilmington would be sidetracked and left out in the cold or high and dry on the sand, it strikes me that at no time in the past has a member of Congress been in position to be of more service to the people of this community than at present and the fact that Mr. Godwin will be elected tomorrow by an overwhelming majority, would seem to me to render it imperative and urgent that the city of Wilmington give him a rousing majority as a further stimulant and incentive to interesting him in our behalf with reference to this inland waterway project which is practically completed now to Newbern and is going to be built by some route all the way to the Gulf coast, in the near future. While I can vouch for Mr. Godwin's best efforts in our behalf at all times, yet he like all the rest of us is human and the bigger our majority here for him tomorrow naturally would suggest greater efforts on his part in the future in our behalf along this as well as every other line. Not only will Mr. Godwin serve out the present term in Congress, ending next March, but he will at least serve for two years longer from March, 1911, to March, 1913, regardless of whether he is re-nominated two years hence, and during that time the destiny of this city or the location of the proposed inland waterway by our doors will have been determined. We shall, therefore, need Mr. Godwin and need him badly and the recollection of a big majority by the city of Wilmington in his behalf now should be ever present with him and a matter of public record. This is a matter of importance alike to the merchant, the banker, the laborer and the capitalist. In other words—It is a business proposition.

J. B. MERCER.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Regular Monthly Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon.—Jurors for December Court.—Commercial Club Committee.

Only matters of a routine and unimportant nature engaged the Board of County Commissioners yesterday afternoon, save the drawing of jurors for the December term of court, the hearing of a committee from the Commercial Club with referene to the Northeast river bridge and consideration of the question of another audit of the books of the county.

The Board met a 3 o'clock with Chairman McEachern presiding and Commissioners Divine, Metts and Montgomery in attendance.

Jos. W. Little, Esq., attorney for W. J. Moore, appeared before the Board and asked abatement of tax on increased valuation of Hotel Tarrymore property, Wrightsville Beach, the improvements on which were not completed by June 1st. The matter was referred to the same special committee to which the application of the Seashore Hotel Company was referred at the last meeting and the Clerk was directed to notify all parties at interest that a special meeting of the Board would be held on Thursday, Nov. 17th, at 3 P. M., for the purpose of passing upon these petitions.

A committee from the Commercial Club, consisting of Messrs. J. H. Rehder and C. E. Taylor, Jr., appeared before the Board and asked if there was anyway that the club could assist the board in the erection of the bridge over the northeast branch of the Cape Fear river. The chairman explained fully the situation as to the bridge, thanked the committee for its offer of assistance and deferred the matter for future action.

Mr. L. O. Smith presented a plan of the heating plant for the county home and same was referred to the committee on Public Buildings with power to act.

Presiding Elder Cunningham appeared before the Board and asked permission to fence in the property of the Wrightsville Methodist Church, used as a burying ground, and to make a slight change in the course of a road. The matter was referred to the County Attorney and chairman of the Board.

J. H. LeGwin, upon motion, was permitted to list his property at Carolina Place. Joseph Brown's property, Block 36, was corrected in valuation from $750 to $75, same being a clerical error. On account of sale of machinery prior to June 1st, valuation on property in Cape Fear township belonging to Chadbourn Lumber Co., was reduced in valuation to $2,800.

Chairman McEachern brought up the question of an annual audit of the books for the fiscal year and read a letter from the same company which audited the books two years ago. F. Hopkinson Smith offered to do the work of auditing and after some discussion of the matter, it was referred to the Auditing Board, which meets on Thursday of this week.

The Superintendent of Health reported 19 cases of smallpox, seven of scarlet fever, quarantined during the month. Three cases of typhoid fever were reported. The county institutions were in their usual good sanitary condition.

The Clerk of the Superior Court reported having turned into the treasury since last report, $9.50 jury tax and meals.

The Register of Deeds reported 32 marriage licenses, 14 for white and 18 for colored persons.

Superintendent of Roads W. H. Shearin reported an average of 100 men on the convict forces during the month.

Clerk Skipper, of the Recorder's Court, reported a total of $507.15 in fines and costs of $406 and jail fees $77.10 during the month.

The following jurors were drawn for the one-week term of civil court to be convened, Dec. 15th:

W. A. Piner, E. R. Rhew, J. F. Gause, R. M. Saunders, T. L. Capel, B. W. Bradford, D. M. McIntosh, R. C. Cantwell, Henry Geischen, H. G. Saunders, O. A. Wiggins, Jr., R. R. Stone, W. D. Johnson, E. J. Padrick, D. W. Ormsby, G. L. Allen, H. E. Boney, W. H. Newell, Jr.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.

Enthusiastic Democratic Meeting at Court House Last Night.

The Young Men's Democratic Club, organized last week with a large number of members, to the roll of which have been added many others, held an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting in the Court House last night, when final plans for the election today were made. J. O. Carr, Esq., one of Wilmington's most prominent and best known lawyers, made a ringing speech in which he emphasized the importance of all Democrats going to the polls and voting the entire Democratic ticket, not scratching a single name. It was the concensus of opinion of those present at the meeting that the majority in this county should be made so large today that the Republicans would not even attempt to put out any more candidates in this county any time soon. Those who were present will put in their best efforts to help swell the majority.

The Democratic Executive Committee requests business houses, railroad omces, etc., to let their clerks off so they can vote early today in order to avoid the usual rush at the polls during the dinner hour. The rush delays not only the election officers, but detains clerks, so it is better to let clerks off at suitable times during the day.

THE PROPOSED CUSTOM HOUSE.

Work of Sketching Plans Begins in About Ten Months.

From a letter from Assistant Secretary of the Treasury to Congressman H. L. Godwin, published yesterday by Mr. J. B. Mercer, of this city, in about ten months preliminary sketches for the proposed new custom house in this city will be begun. As previously noted in this paper, a letter has been received in this city from the supervising architect of the Treasury Department who says that the construction work will not begin in about two years. It is a well known fact that it is usually some months after plans are drawn before actual work is begun on government buildings. The quotation given in this paper from the letter of the supervising architect was correct and is about as authoritative as the letter of the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, since the work of erecting the custom house is to be done under the direction of the supervising architect.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. The Perfection is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Once, more dear farmer, we are glad you are on top. Here's hoping you will stay there. We should state that we are not a candidate.

A Kentuckian who imagines he is a rooster climbed to the ridge-pole of his barn a few days ago and srowed to beat the band. His neighbors say he is crazy but it may turn out that he got some kind of advance message about the Democratic landslide today.

The Republicans are running a negro for Congress in South Carolina. Until the Democrats did the only thing to make the Republican party in North Carolina respectable, they used to elect a negro from the first North Carolina district. They would do it again except for the white man's party.

When a man wants to be the whole cheese he lays up trouble for himself. Other men who want to be the whole cheese can't stand for him and hence a clash of interests ensues. Most all the friction in Nations, States and communities are caused by men who want to run things. The source of nine-tenths of the world's troubles is ambition.

The hobble skirt has invaded the United States Supreme Court. The dignified justices, wearing long flowing robes, had to listen a few days ago an argument by Miss Adelma H. Bird, a New York lawyer, who was rigged out in a hobble skirt to kill. Lawyer Bird made a great hit with her dress whether she did so or not with her address.

This is the day appointed for Dr. Crippen to be hanged in London for the murder of his wife. Dr. Crippen made his escape with Ethel Leneve disguised as a boy, they were captured in Canada, returned to England, and there the author of a most heinous crime was convicted and sentenced, his case appealed and the decision of the lower court was confirmed—all in less time than it takes an American court to dispose of most of the trival cases on the docket.

One of the best signs of the times is the tremendous sentiment which has crystalized in opposition to the revival of Hamiltonian ideas by Ex-President Roosevelt. By the way, these old centralization ideas are now adopted by Roosevelt are diametrically opposite to many of the preachments in his books and some of his speeches. He seems to have reversed himself, and in this campaign he appears to have been doing his best to demonstrate his inconsistent and gyratory attitude towards all public questions. He has quarrelled from State to State and indulged in misrepresentation and vituperation to such an extent that he has caused considerable loss of respect for the American Presidency.

Republican campaigners have been telling our farmers that the tariff is responsible for good prices for farm products. How is it that in Canada the farmers get as much or more for their wheat than American farmers, while the Canadian farmer buys his supplies and agricultural implements 40 to 50 per cent. cheaper than trust made supplies and implements cost our farmers? How is it, if the tariff is responsible for good prices for farm products, that American wheat is falling in price every day instead of staying good? Finally, how is it that under the highest tariff the Republicans say we ever had, cotton sold at five cents a pound? Answers to these questions will show that Republican argumenis are worm-eaten from beginning to end.

FAREWELL, MARION BUTLER.

Marion Butler is checked. Marion Butler is an impossibility. Marion Butler is an impossibility for several reasons. Marion Butler should be ruled out of court for that repudiated bond deal in which he was engaged, and if he had never touched a bond of any description Marion Butler should not be considered in it at all in North Carolina. Marion Butler is all sorts of an impossibility, and his political career up to and including the days of fusion make him so. The political condition into which Marion Butler's unscruplous ambition and political machinations plunged North Carolina from 1892 to 1898 constitute Marion Butler's greatest crime against his native State.

Bonds—repudiated bonds, gilt-edged bonds, carpetbag bonds, special tax bonds and all kinds of bonds—are not in it compared with the crime of Butler when he led enough white recruits from the Democratic ranks into the ranks of a venal party with black allies enough to bring about negroism and wreck and ruin in North Carolina. Marion Butler's bond transaction is merely an incident in a career which previous to the bond plot should have damned any native North Carolinian Speaking of Marion Butler's defense of himself in his speech at Raleigh last Friday when he frothed at the mouth, vituperated and gave us a spectacular eruption of venom, the Charlotte Evening Chronicle says:

"Mr. Butler made his explanation of his connection with the New York Evening Post repudiated bonds advertising, in the course of a five hours' speech, in Raleigh. He says his name was signed to the advertisement without his knowledge. Other counsel did it. He produced proof from Coler & Company, that he "refused to have anything to do with the collection of any Southern States bonds that were not honest and for which the State had not received par value." He considers the South Dakota bonds an honest debt of the State and does not think it improper for him to act as counsel for the holders of that issue. It is to be supposed that his name was placed to the advertisement by Coler & Company, because he was of counsel for the collection of repudiated bonds and his name went along with the firm. Mr. Butler is entitled to the benefit of his explanation at the hands of both the campaigners and newspapers, but little good it is going to do him."

What good will giving Butler the benefit of his explanation concerning the bond transaction do him? Suppose Pettigrew's letter and Coler & Co.'s explanation are true, the most infamous part of the bond transaction is Butler's connection with the bond claims suit of South Dakota against his State while he was one of her honored United States Senators. He admits fully his connection with that suit while he was a North Carolina Senator. That suit had no standing in court except by reason of a conspiracy and plot with a sister State to make his native State come across.

That conspiracy and plot was hatched out long before Marion Butler's term as Senator expired and long before the date which he alleges he became connected with the suit as an attorney against his native State. Pettigrew, representing South Dakota in the Senate at the same time Marion Butler was in the Senate, was induced to get in the game and work South Dakota into the plot. All that must have been done while Marion Butler was representing the bondholders instead of representing North Carolina. It matters not when he became attorney of record in the case, any thinking man is bound to know that the plot must have been maturing a long time before the conspirators entered the formal suit which pulled $27,400 out of the North Carolina treasury. Leave off all this hullabaloo about the carpetbag bonds and that "advertisement" to which Butler's name was signed without his consent, as he claims. Just drop that out of the equation.

If the bondholders' suit against North Carolina had been a straight suit and perfectly legitimate, it would have been reprehensible in any State official or representative to have figured in it while he was in the household which was being attacked. An honorable man would have resigned and then attacked his State through the courts in an effort to get money out of her State Treasury, with the consequent damage to his State's honor and credit. The worst of it, however, is that it wasn't a straight suit, but it was based upon a plot with a far Western State and that conspiracy added infamy to what otherwise might have been only a clear violation of the proprieties on the part of one holding an honor from his State.

Benefits of statements and doubts cannot help Marion Butler. He shows up with an awfully bad record in the South Dakota case and so far as that "advertisement, with his name attached, is concerned, the record, the facts and the circumstances throw doubt on any defense that Marion Butler has attempted to make. There is no defense for Marion Butler for the wrecking of his State politically or for his plotting with another State to sue his State, or for participating as an attorney with others who were engaged in the conspiracy which alone made it possible for judgment to have b een secured against the State which had honored Marion Butler. Why is Marion Butler, anyhow?

BRIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY.

In its election forecast on Sunday the New York Herald predicts that the next Congress will be composed of 217 Democrats and 174 Republicans. This will give the Democrats control of the next House by a majority of 43. The Herald gives seven North Carolina districts to the Democrats and three to the Republicans. The majority which the Herald gives the Democrats in the House will exactly reverse the Republican majority in the last House, which was composed of 391 members. In the last House there were 217 Republicans and 174 Democrats. One Socialist may be sent to Congress from Wisconsin and he is classed as a Democrat. The Herald predicts that the Democrats will carry New York by 50,000. Anti-Roosevelt feeling, says the Herald, is the one big factor in favor of the Democrats. The Herald forecasts the election of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, in New Jersey by something like 7,000 majority, and that Governor Harmon Democrat, will be re-elected in Ohio by from 10,000 to 40,000 majority. The Herald predicts that Indiana will go Democratic and insure the defeat of Senator Beveredge, but forecasts that the Middle West and the Rocky Mountain States will show Republican victories. There are probabilities of Democratic victories in Delaware, Connecticut, Massachusetts and other States.

Oh you Democratic landslide!

"What shall we do with our grafters?" inquires a contemporary. What are the penitentiaries for?

There is more talk of revising the Bible. It should not be undertaken for two years yet, as Col. Roosevelt will be too busy working for the nomination in 1912 to have it revised like he would revise it.

Vote early today. Vote straight and don't vote for even your best friend if he represents the party which has disgraced and ruined North Carolina every time the people were fools enough to place it in power.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The repudiation of Roosevelt in New York and the repudiation of the Taft administration in Ohio will leave the Republican party in sore straits for a ledaer in 1912.—Columbia State.

Again we were honored when Captain (Dr.) C. P. Wertenbaker, of Norfolk and the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, was made first vice president of the Association of Military Surgeons.—Norfolk Landmark.

We can not imagine why Tillman and Roosevelt are not ardent admirers of each other. In their methods of campaigning for results, regardless of facts or justice, they are as twins, "I make the charges; let the other fellow disprove them," is also Teddy's motto.—Columbia State.

Steel and concrete go together in modern buildings, which probably accounts for the absorption of the Atlas Portland Cement Company—the Cement trust—by J. P. Morgan & Co. In due time we may expect—unless the tariff on structural steel, increased to 45 per cent., and on cement—25 per cent. is reduced by a new tariff law—that J. P. Morgan & Co., will be virtually collecting a large percentage of the rents of all buildings constructed of re-enforced concrete. Such is the effect of the Republican revision of the tariff on a vast business interest of the country.—Greensboro Record

There is speculation in some quarters as to whether Dr. J. M. Faison, Democrat, or George Butler, Republican, will be elected to Congress in the Third district. Two years ago the Democratic majority was 2,648 and in view of that we don't see what room the Republicans have to hope to win. It is said that Dr. Faison personally is not an attractive man, but allowing for that ,the Democratic majority is clearly too large to be overcome. And we are inclined to think that much of his lack of popularity is in the imagination of a few disgruntled Democrats, chronic kickers, so to speak, rather than in fact. Not only so, but the Republican candidate is a brother of the best hated man in the State and necessarily will lose some votes on that account. There is not the ghost of a chance that Dr. Faison will not be the next Congressman from the Third.—Greensboro Telegram.

Reverend Tom Dixon's play having come to Charlotte and Charlotte having thrown the expected fit over it, The Chronicle might be privileged to state its mind, which is to the effect that the sort of play Mr. Dixon is exploiting belongs to a dead and buried past, if it belongs anywhere. There is no moral to it. The conditions are only suggestive of what might have been. They do not exist for the fathers and sons of the present generation. There is no touch of refinement in the whole of it. It is crude and unnatural, more fit for the edification of the stable boys than for that of an audience of cultured people. Instead of teaching a lesson to the young men of the present day, it is more likely to give them a suggestion—and the sugestion is not of a wholesome sort, albeit, an impossible one now. The play serves one purpose, however, very well. It advertises the talents and genius of Mr. Dixon—for he is talented and a genius and a pyrotechnical light in the literary and dramatic field. All will agree with us in according this praise to Mr. Dixon, but not all would join us were we to commend the staging of such plays as "The Sins of the Father."—Charlotte Chronicle.

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS.

Game Abundant—Registration—Out look for Election.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 7.—The Waccamaw Game Club had their first deer drive today and its members have gone into camp near Wananish. They are exepcting some rare sport, as game of all kinds was never so abundant than this season and the deer have now been free from disease from several years, increasing greatly in numbers. The preserves of the club is well stocked.

A number of parties from the large northern cities are writing to hunters in Columbus county to get them to go with them and point out the game. Our landowners are posting their property so as to keep out outsiders and strangers from killing off their game.

Mr. G. Herbert Smith, of Cronly, is in town today. He says while the frost did not injure his cotton, the freeze and ice killed all the young bolls, and cut off his crop largely. He will make about a bale per acre on his land. However, Mr. Smith is not only one of our leading manufacturers, but best farmers.

Registration officers in Columbus county state that among the young voters registering, nine-tenths are Democrats, some of them being sons of men who have always voted the Republican ticket. This is a healthy sign for our party.

It is suggested that an "Osceola Day" be held at Lake Waccamaw some time next Spring, to which the Croatans of Robeson and other counties be invited, and the addresses all touch on the Indian race. At that time steps will be taken to erect a monument on the lake to that great Indian chieftain. It mill be remembered that Osceola was born in Columbus county, and grew to manhood on Lake Waccamaw.

Hon. James A. Shipman, who, after the polls close tomorrow, will represent Columbus county in the Legislature, stands committed to the introduction of a bill to hold legalized and direct primaries in this State. Mr. Shipman's idea is to require that all parties hold their primaries on the same day and at the same time and place, so that political contests will be settled without delay. There is a strong sentiment in Columbus county in favor of abolishing convention and letting the people nominate all offices by primary election.

Messrs. W. E. McDaniel, Elmore, Powell and Ford, the latter cashier of the Bank of Columbus, returned Saturday from Philadelphia, where they went to investigate paving material for the town of Whiteville.

Mr. S. C. Hicks, cashier of the Bank of Dunn, N. C., was in Whiteville yesterday, leaving for home this morning.

A conservative Democrat, who has made a close study of the political situation in Columbus county, says it will go Democratic by a majority of about 1,100. The regular Democratic majority is 1,000, but this gentleman says we have gained enough from the Republicans, with the young voters, to increase it by at least 100. He says he would not be surprised to see a larger Democratic majority, but wants to be on the safe side. The Republicans seem very indifferent, and it is thought that many will remain away from the polls tomorrow. Gov. Kitchin's speech did perceptible good in Columbus county.

GREAT AVIATION MEET.

Railways Give Reduced Rates to Raleigh Nov. 16th and 17th.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—Official announcement has been made of the same low railroad rates to Raleigh for the great Glenn H. Curtiss aviation meet November 16th and 17th as was given to the great State Fair. The announcements thus far includes all systems except the Atlantic Coast Line. The low rates from Wilmington already apply via the Seaboard Air Line and it is probable the Coast Line will offer the same rates to its patrons as have been authorized by the Southern Railway, Seaboard and other roads.

From all sections of the State come reports of enormous crowds and it has been predicted that Raleigh's fair week record will be broken by the attendance when the flying machines make their daring flights.

Raleigh is the only place in North Carolina where a two-day aviation meet, open to all comers, is to be held and where more than one machine is to fly.

Raleigh hotels and boarding houses are preparing to receive the largest crowd in the city's history. The exhibitions will be the same hours of the day as in New York, from 2 o'clock until dark.

"A NERVOUS WRECK."

"My daughter is rapidly becoming a nervous wreck," said an anxious father to a friend who happened to be a druggist—"she has no appetite, is run down, weak, takes no interest in anything and we cannot find anything that helps her."

"Why don't you give her Vinol"—said the druggist—"it is not a secret nostrum, just a simple and delicious cod liver and iron tonic—and the best strength creator and general all round tonic we have ever sold in our store. Take a bottle home and try it. We'll return your money if it does not help her."

Within ten days the father came back for another bottle of Vinol, saying that he had never seen such a change in a girl in his life, and he felt sure one more bottle of Vinol would restore her to her normal condition."

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention, and we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in this vicinity, and every person suffering from a chronic cough, cold, or bronchial trouble, to try a bottle of Vinol on the same terms as above. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

AYCOCK IN NASH.

Great Day for Democrats—Old-Time Majority Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Nashville, N. C., Nov. 7.—Before an immense crowd today, ex-Governor C. B. Aycock delivered the closing speech of the campaign. The audience which included many ladies filled every nook and corner of the large court house. Mr. Aycock, who was introduced by F. S. Spruill, Esq., made the strongest Democratic speech ever heard in Nashville and it aroused great enthusiasm. The county candidates on either side made short speeches. This has been a great day for Democracy and tomorrow Nash county will give the Democratic ticket good majority.

Reflex of Express Strike in New York. A. H. Boyden.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—Postal clerks here say that the express strike in New York is having the effect of flooding the mails with merchandise packages that would ordinarily go by express. They are hoping for a speedy restoration to normal express service so that they may be relieved of the increased work with these packages.

The Governor commissions A. H. Boyden, Salisbury, a trustee of the North Carolina Soldiers' Home in place of Dr. D. E. Everett, Raleigh, who found it impossible to take the trusteeship vacated by the death of the late Col. A. B. Stronach.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. GREENVILLE SCHOOL HOUSE

Contract for Building to be Erected on Site Given by Mr. T. F. Bagley Awarded to Mr. J. H. Burriss Yesterday.

It having been decided to accept the property offered by Mr. Thos. F. Bagley as the site for the proposed new school house near Greenville Station, the County Board of Education held a special meeting at the Court House yesterday afternoon for the purpose of opening bids and awarding the contract for the construction of the new building. Chairman J. O. Carr and Messrs. W. H. Sprunt and D. J. Fergus, members of the board, and Supt. Washington Catlett were in attendance.

Three bids were received and they did not vary but a few dollars. That of Mr. J. H. Burriss, for $1,342, was the lowest and he was awarded the contract. The new school house is to be a duplicate in design of the one recently built on the Castle Haynes road, though will be somewhat smaller. It will be built so that at any future time when more room is needed an addition can be erected without marring the architectural beauty of the structure.

Mr. Burriss will begin at once to transport the material to the site of the proposed building and hopes to begin the construction work within two or three weeks at least. The building will be ready for occupancy the first of January next.

The site is about one-fourth of a mile south of Greenville Station and about one mile nearer the station than the present building for that district. The new location is more desirable for the largest number of people of the district.

The old building will be sold to the highest bidder and bids should be sent to Supt. Catlett.

URGENT NEED OF HELP.

Worthy Family in Destitute Circumstances—Aid is Requested.

A few days ago there was brought to the attention of one of Wilmington's most charitably inclined citizens a very distressing case of sickness and want here in the city of Wilmington and he has already taken up the matter, presenting the destitute circumstances of the family to a number of other charitable disposed citizens and it is earnestly hoped that others will come forward with assistance.

There is a family by the name of Mintz, workers in the Salvation Army, who live in the 2300 block on South Second street, near Martin, just beyond the Willard Bag factory. They have been devoting their lives to the sick and unfortunate and therefore have not had the opportunity to accumulate any of this world's goods. They are not beggars in any sense of the word, nor have they ever been objects of charity before. The father has endeavored to support his family by fishing and by doing odd jobs. Last Spring he was taken sick and has been in poor health the biggest part of this Summer. The doctors say he has kidney trouble. There are six children, the oldest a girl between 14 and 15, and the youngest a baby about two months old. The oldest girl has been taking care of the household duties and assisting her mother in various ways, besides delivering War Crys to certain of her regular customers about town. She was stricken with typhoid fever last Summer and although recovering is still in bed and unable to be of any assistance. Two other children have had malarial fever. At present the boy, about five years old, has typhoid, and the mother for the last two weeks has had chills and fever. They have been attended by Dr. Willingham, who was touched by their destitute circumstances and has given them the best of medical attention. For two weeks the family has been unable to obtain milk and their credit at the grocery store has been strained to the utmost. The medicine bill has been partly carried by other members of the Salvation Army, who themselves are not much blessed with this world's goods. Owing to the small collections received and the fact that they have had other charity cases to attend, the Salvation Army has not been able to do as much for them as they would like to do.

A circular sent out by the interested citizen closes with this appeal: "This family should have attention given immediately. The children are in want as regards shoes and clothing. The family has no wood for proper warmth and cooking. On account of the exceedingly great amount of sickness every resource at their command has been exhausted. Any donations in the shape of money, clothing, wood, etc., will be greatly appreciated, and will be put to the best use. Individuals desiring to further interest themselves in this case can obtain more particulars by consulting Mrs. W. F. Corbett, on Walnut street. What should be done, should be done at once."

WILL INSTALL NEW SYSTEM

Aldermen Refuse Absolutely to Consider Purchase of Existing Sewerage System.—They Direct Plans for New System.

Perhaps the most important action of the board of Aldermen in regular monthly sesion last night was the declination to even consider the purchase of existing sewerage system or any portion thereof and instruction to the Water and Sewerage Commission to proceed without further delay the installation of an entirely new system.

This is the board's ultimatum and it would seem that nothing can change them from the position that it would be a waste of the city's money to purchase any part of the present system. It is understood that the Water and Sewerage Commission in deferred regular monthly meeting Thursday night will consider and perhaps adopt one or several plans for the new system.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by Mayor MacRae, who presided. In attendance were Aldermen Ellis, Yopp, Hinton, Bonitz, Stone, Hall, Fales and Willard, also City Attorney McClammy, Clerk Fowler, City Engineer Humphreys, Chairman Belden, of the Street Commission, and Dr. Akerman, city superintendent of health. After the reading of the minutes, matters on the table were taken up.

License was granted to Mr. J. T. Quaries to conduct a near-beer saloon in the basement of The Orton, and Messrs. Caase & Schuler were granted license to conduct a near-beer saloon in connection with their restaurant at No. 113 Princess streets, while restaurant licenses were refused to L. P. Johnson, at No. 702 Castle street; Ideal Wilson, at No. 514 Nixon street, and to Dolly Williams. Hewett Bros. were granted license to conduct a meat market at corner Ninth and Walnut streets. No action was taken on a petition from citizens asking that the deep well to be located near Hemenway school be sunk at northeast corner Sixth and Grace streets, the board having decided to leave the matter of location to the city superintendent of schools, who made the request for the well.

Communications were read from the Street Commission and the Water and Sewerage Commission showing warrants drawn by those departments during October. The amount drawn by the Street Commission is given at $848.40, while that of the Water and Sewerage Commission is $3,466.46, $317.52 to Hazelhurst & Anderson, engineers, and $3,138.84 to J. W. Danforth Co., for pumping station construction. Dr. Akerman, in transmitting the report of the health department, asked that some work be done on the pest house, suggesting that a contact confined there, a carpenter, be employed to do ther work othe carpenters having refused to do the work for fear of the disease. The report of the City Clerk and Treasurer for the month of October was read and showed that on October 1st there was a balance in the treasury of $24,603.67; receipts during the month, $13,667.69, making a grand total of $38,271.36; disbursements, $13,414.90, leaving a balance of $24,845.46.

John C. Boesch was granted license to conduct a restaurant at No. 31 South Front street. Some one commented on the large number of combination restaurant-near-beer saloons, and Alderman Hall suggested that the City Clerk and Treasurer give to the chief of police a list of these, so that he could have his men see that the law requiring the discontinuance of the sale of near-beer at 9 o'clock be obeyed. No action was taken.

Messrs. H. G. Foard and S. M. Boatwright appeared and asked for an appropriation of $350 with which to purchase from Maj. Wm. H. Bernard duplicate files of the Morning Star from 1867, giving a complete history of the doings in the State during that period, comprising 80 or more volumes, for use in the public library, urging upon the Aldermen the importance of keeping this file in the city and calling attention to the fact that Trinity College is making an effort to secure it and at present holds an option. The appropriation was readily granted. It was stated that the library directors had assurance that the Board of Audit and Finance would concur in the appropriation.

Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, in behalf of his congregation and St. John's parish, appeared and presented a petition, largely signed, protesting against the granting of a license to a near-beer saloon at corner of Fourth and Red Cross, rumor of application for such a license having reached the ears of members of those churches. The petition presented by Dr. McClure was a particularly strong one and he asked that when application is made, if at all, the Aldermen take the petition into consideration before acting upon the same. Alderman Bonitz stated to Dr. McClure that he had gone to unnecessary trouble, as his word in protest would have been sufficient. The petition was ordered on file for reference in case application for license is made.

When the report of the finance committee was called for, Chairman Louis E. Hall stated that there was nothing to report except with reference to the $100,000 worth of unsold sewerage bonds. He understood that the Water and Sewerage Commission had enough money in hand to last for six months after the plans for the new system have been adopted, therefore, the work is not being delayed on account of the lack of the $100,000. However, a proposition had been received from the Murchison National Bank to the effect that at any time within the next six months the bank, upon demand, would lend the city $100,000 at favorable interest, if the city desired to borrow. Alderman Hall suggested that inasmuch as the commission did not need the money for six months and the Aldermen had the statement of one of the strongest banks in the city that the money could be secured when needed, that the Water and Sewerage Commission be instructed to proceed with the installation of a sewerage system and when the bond market shows improvement again place the bonds on the market if they do not bring a satisfactory price, then borrow the money until such time as the bonds can be floated for a satisfactory price. The suggestion of Alderman Hall seemed to meet with the approval of other members of the board and the letter of the Murchison National Bank was ordered transmitted to the Board of Audit and Finance, and the clerk instructed to acknowledge receipt of the bank's offer.

Alderman Bonitz, chairman of the streets and wharves committee, reported that work in his department was going ahead, despite the statement of Chairman Heyer, of the Audit and Finance Board, to the effect that the streets were the worst kept of any he had seen this side of Europe.

Upon motion of Alderman Fales the streets and wharves committee was instructed to pave the west side of Fifth street, between Queen and Wooster, near Southside Baptist church.

In presenting the report of the Sanitary department, Chairman Ellis stated that he was unable to carry out the instructions of the board relative to repairs at the pest house as no carpenters would undertake the work while there were smallpox patients at the institution, but he thought the suggestion of Dr. Akerman to employ a carpenter now confined at the pest house a good one. The board authorized Alderman Ellis to make arrangements for the work in accordance with the suggestion. Alderman Ellis said that Dr. Akerman had called to his attention the refusal of the Board of Audit and Finance to pay 50 cents a day to have lime slacked, meaning a considerable loss to the city in the waste of lime. He asked that $100 be appropriated for slacking lime and mixing acids, this to pay the expense of this work until the term of the present board expires. The appropriation was made as requested.

Alderman Fales, chairman of the market committee, said that he was glad that he went on record against the screen ordinance recently adopted, as there had been a great kick at the market house and also some of the consumers had registered a kick against the screening of goods on display. "For fear it will go to the Supreme Court I appeal to you to repeal or suspend the ordinance until next Spring," said Alderman Fales. Upon motion of Alderman Yopp the ordinance was suspended until May 1st of next year. In this connection, Alderman Bonitz insisted that no goods be allowed displayed on the sidewalks. He wanted an ordinance drafted covering this, but was informed that such an ordinance is now on the books. Chief Williams came in at this juncture and was asked if he did not know that there was such an ordinance and he replied that he did. Asked why he did not enforce it he said that he had visited in company with every Mayor since he had been chief, all places where goods were displayed on the streets and that he was only carrying out the directions of these officials. Upon motion of Alderman Hinton Sec. 16, of Art. 5, of the codified ordinances was repealed so that Front street, from Dock to Orange, is put on an equal footing with other streets, which means that after December 1st, persons doing business on Dock, between the streets mentioned, will not be allowed to display their goods on the sidewalks.

Alderman Hinton, chairman of the special committee to investigate and report on the advisability of purchasing the Gilbert property on Market street, between Second and Third streets, for a down town fire station, made his report. He said that the property could be bought for $11,500 and recommended that it not be purchased. The recommendation was adopted. Alderman Yopp came for ward with his old motion that $15,000 be appropriated for the erection of a new fire station house at Fourth and Princess streets with provision for police headquarters, Alderman Hall said if the Police and Fire Commission wanted a new building they should make arrangements for it through the Board of Audit and Finance. He did not think the Aldermen had anything to do with it as they are not consulted in the purchase of fire horses or apparatus. The motion of Alderman Yopp did not receive a second and then Alderman Stone trotted out his well worn motion that an appropriation of $15,000 be made for the purchase of the Mills property on Second, between Princess and Chestnut streets. This motion met with a second, but it was likewise lost. So the matter stands just as it did before the agitation for a new building was started some time ago, and in the meantime the city is running a great risk of a serious accident occurring at the present unsafe structure at Fourth and Princess street.

Alderman Bonitz called attention to the speed at which coal carts travel in coming down Market street and turning the corner at Second street and declared that unless it was stopped, there would be serious accidents. He said that it must be stopped and unless the officers took hold of the matter individuals would. Alderman Hall called attention to the high speed of autos in rounding the corner at Second and Market.

Alderman Hinton referred to the informal meeting last Wednesday when Engineer Hammond, of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, appeared and presented the sewerage question very thoroughly from the company's point of view and stated that he did not contradict a single statement of Engineers Lucas, Rapalje and Humphreys. Alderman Hinton was not in favor of buying the existing plant and suggested that the Water and Sewerage Commission be instructed to go ahead with the plans for a new system. Alderman Willard suggested that the clerk be instructed to reply to the letter of the Sewerage Commission, offering to leave the matter to arbitration, by giving the action of the Aldermen. Alderman Hall thought it best to send them a copy of the action of the Aldermen more than a year ago. The suggestion of Alderman Hall was the one finally adopted.

Alderman Stone called attention to the accusation that City Engineer Humphreys did not give his entire time to the city, but instead, maintains an office separate and distinct from the city engineer's office and stated that as the city engineer was present he would like to hear a statement from him. Mr. Hpmphreys said that since his employment on a salary basis he had been out of the city only twice and each time the Street Commission knew of his absence; that he did not promise not to do any outside work; that he was giving the city his entire time; that he was now engaged on a work for the city which would be compelled in about three months and unless the street work was underway at that time he would resign, for there would be nothing for him to do until street improvement was undertaken; that he took in outside work and would continue to do so. Alderman Stone, at the conclusion of the city engineer's statement, said: "That is all right. I just wanted to give you an opportunity to explain, feeling satisfied that you could."

Alderman Ellis asked for and was granted an appropriation of $400 for putting down a drain pipe on Sixth, between Nutter and Martin streets, a distance of two blocks. The board also appropriated, upon motion of Alderman Willard, $2,500 to complete the macadam belt in the southern section of the city; that is, to pave five additional blocks as follows: Front street, from Dawson to Wright, Wright from Third to Sixth and Sixth from Wright to Dawson. Alderman Hinton cast the only dissenting vote. The board adjourned at 9:30 o'clock.

CUTTING AFFAIR YESTERDAY.

E. W. Rogers and James Richardson Slashed by Joe Watters.

Early yesterday morning there occurred on the upper Coast Line yards, in the vicinity of Fifth street, a cutting affair in which E. W. Rogers, colored, a driver of a mail wagon in the local postoffice, was severely slashed, and James Richardson, colored, a porter in the Pullman car service, was slightly wounded. Joe Watters, colored, is the negro said to have done the cutting and he made his escape. Rogers was sent to the hospital for attention. His wounds are painful, but not considered serious, while Richardson's wound was not of such nature as to require hospital treatment.

It apears that Rogers remonstrated with two negroes for shouting at negro girls on an outgoing morning train, whereupon they set upon him, one, said to be Watters, cutting him severely with a knife. Richardson is said to have asked the men not to kill Rogers and for his request was slashed across the face by one of the assailants of Rogers and was also dealt a terrific blow. Rogers came on to the union station, where he met Patrolman Chas. S. Burnett, to whom he reported the trouble. The officer sent the negro to the hospital. York Watters, a well known colored blacksmith, was arrested, but it developed that it was his son who was wanted for the cutting. York was released. Officers are making an effort to apprehend the negro who used his knife with such telling effect.

Hearing in Cases Against L. H. Siau.

In response to a garnishee issued last week, Mr. Joseph W. Yates, of the Murchison National Bank, yesterday morning appeared before Justice Harriss to answer questions relative to money Mr. L. H. Siau, formerly of this city, has on deposit at that bank Last week civil actions were instituted against Mr. Siau by The A. David Company, J. T. Harper and the City Laundry Company for amounts alleged to be due on accounts, aggregating about $45, exclusive of costs. It was ascertained from Mr. Yates at the hearing yesterday that Mr. Siau has on deposit at the bank enough to cover the amount of the claims and Mr. Yates was directed to hold the funds until the final disposition of the cases.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Cases of Interest Disposed of Yesterday Morning.

After a temporary run of several days, during which there were no cases tried for the reason that there were none on the docket, the Recorder had a "full house" yesterday morning, and several road sentences were given offenders, though the Recorder was not disposed to be severe.

Percy Felton, colored, was given hearing on the charge of assault with deadly weapon on his wife with a whiskey bottle Sunday night. The bottle was full of whiskey and of course the booze was lost when the flask struck the woman's cranium. The defendant was found guilty and fined $15 and costs. Unless the amount is raised by today the defendant will be sent to the roads.

Chas. Moseley, colored, was called to answer the charge of larceny in two cases, sent over from Justice Harriss' court. Moseley was charged in one warrant with the larceny of a coat and in another with the larceny of four yards of cloth for suits from The A. David Company. William H. Moore, colored, charged with larceny and receiving stolen goods, was also given hearing before the justice yesterday, but his case will not come up in the Recorder's court until Wednesday. Moseley was found guilty in both cases. He was given six months on the county roads in one and judgment in the other was suspended.

Dan Pollock and Eller Henry, colored, answered the charge of stealing a kimona and ladies' sweater from the store of J. H. Rehder & Co. Saturday night. Pollock was given six months on the county roads and the woman goes to the county farm for three months.

Attempted store-breaking was the charge entered against Julia Mumford, a young colored woman, who was found early Sunday morning at the store of Otersen & Stewart, No. 603 N. Fourth street, just after a large window in the front of the store had been smashed with a brick bat. Officer A. L. Long heard a noise as if the shattering of glass and rushed to the point from whence the sound came. The negro woman was crouched near the store and she was arrested. She appeared to be in an intoxicated condition and was sent to police headquarters. The brick bat which broke the window glass was later found in the store. The circumstances pointed very strongly to the guilt of the woman. The Recorder gave her three months on the county farm. Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., who appeared for the defendant, gave notice of appeal to the Superior Court. In default of $50 bond the woman went to jail. Later she asked that the appeal be withdrawn, having decided it the part of wisdom to serve the sentence, for she would have to remain in jail for two months before the next term of court and then probably be required to visit the county farm for three months.

Federal Court Begins Tomorrow.

The regular Fall term of the United States Circuit and District Courts for this city will convene tomorrow morning with Judge O. H. Connor, of Wilson, presiding. The term was originally called to begin this morning, but on account of this being election day was later postponed until tomorrow morning, and jurors and witnesses are summoned to appear at that time. The first part of the term will be devoted to criminal matters, after which civil matters will be taken up.

Wilmington, North Carolina.

The engagement thus announced is of much interest to many friends of Miss Maffit and Mr. Parker. The former is a bright and attractive young lady of accomplishments and many charms. The groom-elect is a talented attorney of Monroe. He was graduated in June, 1907, from the University of North Carolina, the president of his class and its acknowledged leader. Later he studied law at the same institution. He is the Republican nominee for Congress from the Seventh district, being among the youngest men ever to receive that honor, since he is scarcely older than the minimum age required by the constitution for service in Congress. He is gifted with an active, vigorous mentality, which has made him an aggressive campaigner."

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. Theatrical

"Graustark," or "A Love Behind a Throne," to be presented at the Academy tonight, is a dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's most popular and best selling novel. Mr. McCutcheon is also the author of "Brewster's Millions," but it is the concensus of opinion that "Graustark" possesses far greater dramatic possibilities and is a much more interesting play.

Grenfall Lorry, a handsome young American, belongs to that class which the Socialists are fond of describing as the "idle rich." On a train at Denver he becomes interested in a young girl who is touring America with an uncle and aunt. She is evidently a foreigner as she is different from any girl of his acquaintance and has the bearing and manner of an aristocrat. He tries to make the acquaintance, but unsuccessfully as she meets every attempt with studied indifference. Before the journey ends he manages to be of great assistance to her, and is invited to join her party at dinner. There he is chagrined to learn from the lips of his divinity that her name is Guggenslocker.

He is speechless. "An angel with a name like that!" he thinks, and wonders how such a lovely girl could possibly be the daughter of some German sausage maker. But she tells him she lives in Edelweiss, the capital of Graustark, and banteringly invites him to pay her a visit. To her surprise and confusion he accepts and swears to meet her in Edelweiss.

He has never heard of Graustark, but starts out to find it, accompanied by his artist friend, Harry Anguish. It is a small principality in eastern Europe, and when they finally arrive, they are dismayed to learn that no one knows the Guggenslockers. In despair they are about to abandon the search and return, when by chance they overhear a plot to abduct the reigning princess. Thirsting for adventure, they decide to remain and frustrate the plans of the abductors.

They invade the castle at midnight and finally reach the Princess' boudoir in time to save her. But Lorry's enthusiasm is turned to dismay when he recognizes the occupant of the room. It is his mysterious Miss Guggenslocker—Yetive, Princess of Graustark.

He learns later that she is betrothed to a neighboring Prince, whom she must marry to save her country from financial ruin. This, however, does not deter the intrepid American from making desperate, if seemingly hopeless love. Her fiance, Prince Lorenz, arrives in a maudlin state of intoxication. For speaking slightingly of the Princess the American knocks him down and is immediately challenged to fight a duel, but another Prince, who had planned the abduction, assassinates Prince Lorenz and fastens suspicion on Lorry. He is accused and imprisoned, but his escape is planned and executed by the Princess. After numerous hair-breadth escapes and thrilling situations, love conquers the traditions of centuries, and Yetive's ministers, rather than lose her as their ruler consent to let her wed the American.

The locale of the story lends itself readily to a picturesque scenic investure and gorgeous costuming.

The producers have spared no expense in this respect, and the production is said to be one of the most extravagant ever given a romantic play. Seats are on sale at Plummer's.

Fornia Friday Night.

But a few more days and Wilmington music-lovers will have an opportunity of hearing the noted Rita Fornia, one of the brightest stars of the Grand Opera stage, and in connection with Fornia will appear the famous English violinist, Arturo Tibaldi, which will give the people the rare chance of hearing two artists at one recital and for one price of admission. It seems useles to say that the event will be a superb musical success, because the very personnel of the artists alone shows that. Music-lovers of the city are not taking as great an interest as they should in the recital, however, and this is to be regretted, especially as upon the succes of this recital depends whether or not those back of the present venture will bring other big and high-class musical attractions to Wilmington, one of which will be Mme. Liza Lehman, who will appear in January, should a contract be closed with her.

Since the Fornia recital was first announced many music-lovers have asked about her selections, and there has been a big demand for her to sing the Leonora Aria from "Il Trovatore," as Fornia is said to be one of the best Leonoras ever on the stage. The promoters have arranged for her to sing this Aria at the recital Friday night. She will also sing several selections from Chopin, notably Aime Moi, and Schubert's Allmach. Of course, it can safely be counted on that she will sing something popular when it comes to the inevitable encores.

Arturo Tibaldi has made a special selection of numbers for his Wilmington recital.

Besides the two big stars, Miss Coburn, a high salaried accompanist, will be here to play at the recital.

The Crystal Palace.

In the opinion of many the bill at the Crystal Palace this week eclipsed any since the playhouse opened under the new management. Flag and White are seen in a splendid comedy sketch and the three Amiottes do some thrilling and exciting slack wire work and other stunts of this kind. The two reels of motion pictures complete a most interesting and entertaining programme.

At the Bijou Today.

"Mamma's Birthday Present" and "Two Waifs and a Stray" will be shown as the feature pictures at the Bijou theatre today. The former is a genuine comedy. The cook quits and general trouble comes by the wagon load, winding up with an indication of burglars in the house. The latter strikes the tender chord in a person's make-up and it shows that our hearts are in the right place, and such pictures as this keep them there.

Joyland.

The feature film at the popular Joyland yesterday was "Delightful Dolly" and it pleased everyone. Those who did not see it, should come down today and have the rare treat. Another big imported film will be offered and a few minutes can be very pleasantly and profitably spent by all who care to drop in the theatre and spend a short time. The programme changes daily and the admission is only five cents.

—Henry Merrick, a faithful and trusted employe of the Clyde Line, died at an early hour Saturday morning at his home and was buried with funeral from Ebenezer Baptist church, of which he was an official.

HOME METHODS IN THE FACTORY.

Every one knows what would happen if a housewife put down her fruit and jellies by simply pouring them from the kettle into the jars and allowing them to stand with loose covers. Her fruit would soon ferment and spoil. Cooking fats are just as liable to spoil, yet most manufacturers of lard and other cooking fats pack their products in tubs or loose-covered tins, exposed to air, dust and odors.

Cottolene, however, is packed in pails of special design, sealed absolutely airtight, so that the makers guarantee Cottolene to remain indefinitely as sweet and as fresh as the day it was made.

PURE CRYSTAL ICE.

Our process of ice making is sanitary in every particular and has stood the test of time. Only pure artesian water used, from a well one hundred and fifty feet deep, to produce live steam, afterwards condensed and frozen in clean moulds of uniform size, producing ice at a temperature suitable for all domestic and refrigerating purposes. Such ice is economical on account of no tendency to "flake" or break up when used and thus great loss is prevented.

Ice must melt to refrigerate and ours lasts longer in melting than any made.

Let us obviate your ice troubles. Quick service, Quality and Quantity assured.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

May Contracts Sold at 15 Cents on the Markets—Expect Bullish Census Report Tomorrow—Crop Estimates Yesterday.

New York, Nov. 7.—The cotton market had a very sharp advance today with May contracts selling at 15 cents for the first time since the middle of last October on a more general demand than for weeks past, reduced estimates of the yield, and expectations of a bullish census report at the opening on Wednesday morning.

Slight reactions occurred as a result of realizing in the late trading, but while the closing tone was barely steady, last prices showed a gain of from 5 to 16 points for the day. The market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points for the day.

The market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points in response to higher cables than expected with a renewal of the buying movement which developed toward the end of last week revival of moderate crop estimates and reports of an improved trade demand. With tomorrow a holiday and with more or less uncertainty still felt as to the probable showing at the effect of census figures at the opening on Wednesday, there was heavy realizing on the advance and some consequent irregularity, but the general tendency of the market continued upward and following a report that one of the leading English authorities estimated the crop at 11,890,000 bales active positions sold 14 to 26 points above the closing figures of last week. Around 15 cents for May nearly $5 per bale above the low level reached toward the end of October, realizing sales became very heavy and the market in the late eased off from the best with May closing at 14.90, but after the close it was said that there were buyers willing to pay 14.94 for May at private sale. In addition to the crop estimate from London a local authority issued an estimate of 11,530,000 bales. Liverpool will be open for business as usual tomorrow, but both New Orleans and New York will be closed. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 3-16c. higher.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 53,182 bales against 91,061 last week and 61,956 last year. For the week 375,000 bales against 390,534 last week and 377,388 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 9,727 bales against 10,788 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 15 points advance; middling uplands 14.95; do. gulf 15.20; sales 6,380 bales.

Cotton futures opened firm and closed barely steady.

DULL DAY ON STOCK MARKET

Eve of Election Inopportune for Heavy Speculation—Market in State of Semi-Stagnation—Conditions Yesterday.

New York, Nov. 7.—The stock market came to the eve of election in a state of semi-stagnation. How far that action was due to solicitude over the political outcome and how far to a renewed consideration of possible further unfavorable developments in other directions did not clearly appear. The shrinking volume of the transactions made it clear, however, that the time was considered inopportune for large extension of speculative commitments.

Union Pacific came forward into greater relative prominence, supplanting Reading in the position second to United States Steel. The proportion of United States Steel to the dealings totally was maintained are near one-third and the combined dealings in Union Pacific and Reading exceeded slightly the transactions in United States Steel.

The statistics of the Copper Producers' Association for October were a distinct disappointment of the more sanguine of the expectations which have been fostered by stock market tips for some time past. Railroads in the Southern group showed some special strength owing to the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in favor of the rate advances asked for. The money position remained uncertain. Time loans were strong and call money again touched 4 3-4 per cent., last week's maximum. The private discount rate advanced in London.

The large part played by American cotton imports in the increase in Great Britain's foreign trade for October foreshadows another extremely favorable trade balance for this country in the forthcoming October report. An unfavorable impression was made by the unsettled express drivers' strike in New York, the threatened tariff dispute with Germany over the potash trade regulation reflection in weakness in the fertilizer stocks and the unfavorable showing of unfilled orders on hand to be made by the United States Steel Corporation in the statement for next Thursday.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,327,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 417,800 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Under a scattered fire of selling by the best buying among last week's shorts, the wheat market developed weakness toray and closed at a net decline of a shade to 1-4 to 3-8c. Final sales of corn showed a loss of 1-8c compared with Saturday night, but oats were unchanged to 1-4c up, and provisions had increased in cost 10 cents to a full half dollar.

SENTIMENT IS BULLISH.

Further Advance on Cotton Market—Liverpool Strong Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 7.—A strong Liverpool market, caused by the rumor that Neill Bros., would issue an estimate below 12,000,000 bales and by American buying orders sent Saturday night brought about a further advance here, where the sentiment is almost universally bullish.

Higher prices are expected after the election on the belief that spinners will then enter the market as buyers. A slight recession at the close left the market about 11 points higher than Saturday, with the trade long, looking for a better market on Wednesday. The temper of the market is in sharp contrast with a week ago, when the trade expected a decline, now we hear no one advancing any bearish views. Rather freer offerings of shipments to New York causing December to be slightly easier today.

INVITATIONS ISSUED TO APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer contained the following which will be of interest to a wide circle of friends in this city:

"The following invitation has been issued:

Mrs. John Laurens Maffit request the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter
Maria Burgwin
to
Mr. John Johnston Parker
on Wednesday evening
November the twenty-third
at six o'clock,
323 South Fourth Street
Wilmington, North Carolina.

The engagement thus announced is of much interest to many friends of Miss Maffit and Mr. Parker. The former is a bright and attractive young lady of accomplishments and many charms. The groom-elect is a talented attorney of Monroe. He was graduated in June, 1907, from the University of North Carolina, the president of his class and its acknowledged leader. Later he studied law at the same institution. He is the Republican nominee for Congress from the Seventh district, being among the youngest men ever to receive that honor, since he is scarcely older than the minimum age required by the constitution for service in Congress. He is gifted with an active, vigorous mentality, which has made him an aggressive campaigner."

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Theatrical

"Graustark," or "A Love Behind a Throne," to be presented at the Academy tonight, is a dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's most popular and best selling novel. Mr. McCutcheon is also the author of "Brewster's Millions," but it is the concensus of opinion that "Graustark" possesses far greater dramatic possibilities and is a much more interesting play.

Grenfall Lorry, a handsome young American, belongs to that class which the Socialists are fond of describing as the "idle rich." On a train at Denver he becomes interested in a young girl who is touring America with an uncle and aunt. She is evidehly a foreigner as she is different from any girl of his acquaintance and has the bearing and manner of an aristocrat. He tries to make the acquaintance, but unsuccessfully as she meets every attempt with studied indifference. Before the journey ends he manages to be of great assistance to her, and is invited to join her party at dinner. There he is chagrined to learn from the lips of his divinity that her name is Guggenslocker.

He is speechless. "An angel with a name like that!" he thinks, and wonders how such a lovely girl could possibly be the daughter of some German sausage maker. But she tells him she lives in Edelweiss, the capital of Graustark, and banteringly invites him to pay her a visit. To her surprise and confusion he accepts and swears to meet her in Edelweiss.

He has never heard of Graustark, but starts out to find it, accompanied by his artist friend, Harry Anguish. It is a small principality in eastern Europe, and when they finally arrive, they are dismayed to learn that no one knows the Guggenslockers. In despair they are about to abandon the search and return, when by chance they overhear a plot to abduct the reigning princess. Thirsting for adventure, they decide to remain and frustrate the plans of the abductors.

They invade the castle at midnight and finally reach the Princess' boudoir in time to save her. But Lorry's enthusiasm is turned to dismay when he recognizes the occupant of the room. It is his mysterious Miss Guggenslocker—Yetive, Princess of Graustark.

He learns later that she is betrothed to a neighboring Prince, whom she must marry to save her country from financial ruin. This, however, does not deter the intrepid American from making desperate, if seemingly hopeless love. Her fiance, Prince Lorenz, arrives in a maudlin state of intoxication. For speaking slightingly of the Princess the American knocks him down and is immediately challenged to fight a duel, but another Prince, who had planned the abduction, assassinates Prince Lorenz and fastens suspicion on Lorry. He is accused and imprisoned, but his escape is planned and executed by the Princess. After numerous hair-breadth escapes and thrilling situations, love conquers the traditions of centuries, and Yetive's ministers, rather than lose her as their ruler consent to let her wed the American.

The locale of the story lends itself readily to a picturesque scenic investure and gorgeous costuming.

The producers have spared no expense in this respect, and the production is said to be one of the most extravagant ever given a romantic play. Seats are on sale at Plummer's.

Fornia Friday Night.

But a few more days and Wilmington music-lovers will have an opportunity of hearing the noted Rita Fornia, one of the brightest stars of the Grand Opera stage, and in connection with Fornia will appear the famous English violinist, Arturo Tibaldi, which will give the people the rare chance of hearing two artists at one recital and for one price of admission. It seems useles to say that the event will be a superb musical success, because the very personnel of the artists alone shows that. Music-lovers of the city are not taking as great an interest as they should in the recital, however, and this is to be regretted, especially as upon the succes of this recital depends whether or not those back of the present venture will bring other big and high-class musical attractions to Wilmington, one of which will be Mme. Liza Lehman, who will appear in January, should a contract be closed with her.

Since the Fornia recital was first announced many music-lovers have asked about her selections, and there has been a big demand for her to sing the Leonora Aria from "Il Trovatore," as Fornia is said to be one of the best Leonoras ever on the stage. The promoters have arranged for her to sing this Aria at the recital Friday night. She will also sing several selections from Chopin, notably Aime Moi, and Schubert's Allmach. Of course, it can safely be counted on that she will sing something popular when it comes to the inevitable encores.

Arturo Tibaldi has made a special selection of numbers for his Wilmington recital.

Besides the two big stars, Miss Coburn, a high salaried accompanist, will be here to play at the recital.

The Crystal Palace.

In the opinion of many the bill at the Crystal Palace this week eclipsed any since the playhouse opened under the new management. Flag and White are seen in a splendid comedy sketch and the three Amiottes do some thrilling and exciting slack wire work and other stunts of this kind. The two reels of motion pictures complete a most interesting and entertaining programme.

At the Bijou Today.

"Mamma's Birthday Present" and "Two Waifs and a Stray" will be shown as the feature pictures at the Bijou theatre today. The former is a genuine comedy. The cook quits and general trouble comes by the wagon load, winding up with an indication of burglars in the house. The latter strikes the tender chord in a person's make-up and it shows that our hearts are in the right place, and such pictures as this keep them there.

Joyland.

The feature film at the popular Joyland yesterday was "Delightful Dolly" and it pleased everyone. Those who did not see it, should come down today and have the rare treat. Another big imported film will be offered and a few minutes can be very pleasantly and profitably spent by all who care to drop in the theatre and spend a short time. The programme changes daily and the admission is only five cents.

—Henry Merrick, a faithful and trusted employe of the Clyde Line, died at an early hour Saturday morning at his home and was buried with funeral from Ebenezer Baptist church, of which he was an official.

HOME METHODS IN THE FACTORY.

Every one knows what would happen if a housewife put down her fruit and jellies by simply pouring them from the kettle into the jars and allowing them to stand with loose covers. Her fruit would soon ferment and spoil. Cooking fats are just as liable to spoil, yet most manufacturers of lard and other cooking fats pack their products in tubs or loose-covered tins, exposed to air, dust and odors.

Cottolene, however, is packed in pails of special design, sealed absolutely air-tight, so that the makers guarantee Cottolene to remain indefinitely as sweet and as fresh as the day it was made.

PURE CRYSTAL ICE.

Our process of ice making is sanitary in every particular and has stood the test of time. Only pure artesian water used, from a well one hundred and fifty feet deep, to produce live steam, afterwards condensed and frozen in clean moulds of uniform size, producing ice at a temperature suitable for all domestic and refrigerating purposes. Such ice is economical on account of no tendency to "flake" or break up when used and thus great loss is prevented.

Ice must melt to refrigerate and ours lasts longer in melting than any made.

Let us obviate your ice troubles. Quick service, Quality and Qauntity assured.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

May Contracts Sold at 15 Cents on the Markets—Expect Bullish Census Report Tomorrow—Crop Estimates Yesterday.

New York, Nov. 7.—The cotton market had a very sharp advance today with May contracts selling at .. cents for the first time since the middle of last October on a more general demand than for weeks past, reduced estimates of the yield, and expectations of a bullish census report at the opening on Wednesday morning.

Slight reactions occurred as a result of realizing in the late trading, but while the closing tone was barely steady, last prices showed a gain of from 5 to 16 points for the day. The market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points for the day.

The market opened firm at an advance of 10 to 17 points in response to higher cables than expected with a renewal of the buying movement which developed toward the end of last week revival of moderate crop estimates and reports of an improved trade demand. With tomorrow a holiday and with more or less uncertainty still felt as to the probable showing at the effect of census figures at the opening on Wednesday, there was heavy realizing on the advance and some consequent irregularity, but the general tendency of the market continued upward and following a report that one of the leading English authorities estimated the crop at 11,890,000 bales active positions sold 14 to 26 points above the closing figures of last week. Around 15 cents for May nearly $5 per bale above the low level reached toward the end of October, realizing sales became very heavy and the market in the late eased off from the best with May closing at 14.90, but after the close it was said that there were buyers willing to pay 14.94 for May at private sale. In addition to the crop estimate from London a local authority issued an estimate of 11,530,000 bales. Liverpool will be open for business as usual tomorrow, but both New Orleans and New York will be closed. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 3-16c. higher.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 53,182 bales against 91,061 last week and 61,956 last year. For the week 375,000 bales against 390,534 last week and 377,388 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 9,727 bales against 10,788 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 15 points advance; middling uplands 14.95; do. gulf 15.20; sales 6,380 bales.

Cotton futures opened firm and closed barely steady.

DULL DAY ON STOCK MARKET

Eve of Election Inopportune for Heavy Speculation—Market in State of Semi-Stagnation—Conditions Yesterday.

New York, Nov. 7.—The stock market came to the eve of election in a state of semi-stagnation. How far that action was due to solicitude over the political outcome and how far to a renewed consideration of possible further unfavorable developments in other directions did not clearly appear. The shrinking volume of the transactions made it clear, however, that the time was considered inopportune for large extension of speculative commitments.

Union Pacific came forward into greater relative prominence, supplanting Reading in the position second to nited States Steel. The proportion of United States Steel to the dealings totally was maintained are near one-third and the combined dealings in Union Pacific and Reading exceeded slightly the transactions in United States Steel.

The statistics of the Copper Producers' Association for October were a distinct disappointment of the more sanguine of the expectations which have been fostered by stock market tips for some time past. Railroads in the Southern group showed some special strength owing to the decision of the Interstate Commerce Commission in favor of the rate advances asked for. The money position remained uncertain. Time loans were strong and call money again touched 4 3-4 per cent., last week's maximum. The private discount rate advanced in London.

The large part played by American cotton imports in the increase in Great Britain's foreign trade for October foreshadows another extremely favorable trade balance for this country in the forthcoming October report. An unfavorable impression was made by the unsettled express drivers' strike in New York, the threatened tariff dispute with Germany over the potash trade regulation reflection in weakness in the fertilizer stocks and the unfavorable showing of unfilled orders on hand to be made by the United States Steel Corporation in the statement for next Thursday.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,327,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day 417,800 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Under a scattered fire of selling by the best buying among last week's shorts, the wheat market developed weakness today and closed at a net decline of a shade to 1-4 to 3-8c. There was no apparent support from the larger operators who had previously been working for an advance. Final sales of corn showed a loss of 1-8c compared with Saturday night, but oats were unchanged to 1-4c up, and provisions had increased in cost 10 cents to a full half dollar.

SENTIMENT IS BULLISH.

Further Advance on Cotton Market—Liverpool Strong Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 7.—A strong Liverpool market, caused by the rumor that Neill Bros., would issue an estimate below 12,000,000 bales and by American buying orders sent Saturday night brought about a further advance here, where the sentiment is almost universally bullish.

Higher prices are expected after the election on the belief that spinners will then enter the market as buyers. A slight recession at the close left the market about 11 points higher than Saturday, with the trade long, looking for a better market on Wednesday. The temper of the market is in sharp contrast with a week ago, when the trade expected a decline, now we hear no one advancing any bearish views. Rather freer offerings of shipments to New York causing December to be slightly easier today.

during the campaign, Chairman Eller declaring that the battle shifts now to the polls tomorrow.

However, he and his associates remain at their guns ready for any emergency and to receive reports of the results tomorrow night. Chairman Eller says Monday's reports from all parts of the State are still more reassuring and that the Democratic majorities will be a final and complete "knock out" for Butler, Republicanism and conclusive reaffirmation of Democratic ascendancy in this State. Chairman Eller regards the Eight Congression district as only the really critical battleground, and says he has strong reason to believe Democracy will triumph in this district also.

End of New York Fight.

New York, Nov. 7.—The New York Gubernatorial campaign of 1910 passed into history tonight with Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate and Theodore Roosevelt, his most prominent backer, voicing their last appeals for votes. The final word on the Democratic side was spoken Sunday night, when John A. Dix, the head of the ticket, sent to Mr. Stimson his answer to the twelve questions telegraphed by Stimson to Dix's home in Thomson.

Mr. Dix spent the last day of the campaign at home. Mr. Stimson occupied the morning preparing an answer to his rival's reply of Sunday night and the rest of the day and evening on the stump or in an automobile hurrying between political rallies in New York City.

Mr. Stimson's second telegram to Mr. Dix accuses him of evading the issues put up to the latter by the Republican candidate's first message. It answered several accusations shot back by Dix, and repeated questions which Stimson considered that Dix had left unanswered. Mr. Dix said last night that his statement issued then was positively his last word before election and he repeated this assertion which Chairman Rodie, of the Democratic Executive Committee, talked with him at Thomson by telephone this afternoon.

The Democratic leaders declared that the quiet that prevailed today on their side of the campaign was itself evidence of confidence.

"Our party machinery up-state is in better shape than at any time for the past 15 years," said Chairman Rodie. "We have not had a single message from up-State today, which indicates to us that everything is satisfactory."

Chairman Prentice, of the Republican State Committee, said tonight:

"I'm absolutely confident we'll carry the whole ticket, and I don't think the vote will be close."

Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the Republican County Committee, said: "The situation looks better today than it did two days ago."

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, as usual, kept his opinions to himself.

The Democrats have high hopes of ousting three prominent Republican congressmen. In the thirteenth district, Herbert Parsons, former Republican county chairman, is opposed by Jefferson M. Levy, who once represented the district in Congress, and who has attacked Mr. Parsons for alleged sugar trust affiliations. In the Seventh district, William S. Bennett, who was prominently mentioned for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, is opposed by Henry George, Jr., son of the famous single tax advocate. Tammany Hall hopes also to defeat William M. Bennett, the assemblyman, who won the Republican nomination away from Congressman Van Vechten Olcott. On account of the Bennett-Olcott fight, Thomas G. Patten, the Democratic candidate, expects to overcome the normal Republican plurality.

All the big hotels have made elaborate preparations to entertain the crowds and to display the returns, and the rule "nothing but champagne after 10 o'clock," will obtain at many places.

Mr. Stimson will receive the returns at his campaign headquarters at the Hotel Manhattan.

Col. Roosevelt says he has made no special preparations. He said last night that he supposed somebody would tell him the news and if not, that he should hear it the next day.

Betting Odds on Dix.

New York, Nov. 7.—Gossip of the hotel corridors and the talk of the street had it today and tonight that the campaign betting odds in these last pre-election hours, were fluctuating between 3 to 1 on Dix, and 3 1-2 to 1 on Dix. The Republicans charge, however, that the betting is largely fictitious, and that the prices are quoted for "wash" bets only, in which no money changes hands.

It was reported tonight that just after the close of the stock exchange today, one broker offered $20,000 to $6,000 on Dix, and found no Stimson takers.

A considerable amount of Stimson money from Buffalo appeared late this afternoon, but the askers wanted 4 to 1 and found no takers.

Warm Fight in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Nov. 7.—With traditional optimism, the leaders of both the Republican and Democratic parties predict that at the polls tomorrow large majorities would be rolled up for their candidates for the legislature and the State offices.

Chairman Edwin S. Lee, of the Republican State Committee, was sure that on joint ballot the next legislature would return Albert J. Beveridge, to the United States Senate, by a majority of not less than 25. Chairman Stokes Jackson, of the Democratic committee, figured out that by the same majority John Worth Kern would be elected by the Legislature to succeed Mr. Beveridge in the Senate.

Non-partisan forecasters predicted that tomorrow's election would be one of the closest in Indiana's history and the betting boards in Indianapolis tonight bore even bets only.

Maryland Democrats Confident.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—All arrangements for the election tomorrow in Maryland are finished. The Democrats seem confident of gaining two even three members of Congress, while the Republicans feel reasonably sure that they will hold their own.

Oklahoma Democrats.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 7.—The most conservative estimate of Democratic leaders as to the probable majority for the State ticket tomorrow is 25,000. With 80 per cent. of the negro vote eliminated by the recently adopted "grandfather clause," the highest estimate is 40,000. The Republican State chairman claims victory by 10,000 to 25,000.

Texas For Democrats.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 7.—Confident of an overwhelming majority, Democratic leaders thoughout the State tonight claim the election of their entire State ticket and congressional delegation.

Mississippi Situation.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 7.—It is conceded by leaders of all parties that the Democrats will return a full congressional delegation to Washington. No other candidates will be voted for at tomorrow's election.

Harmon and Harding.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.—Each with a record of a partial defeat in the two last State elections, the Republican and Democratic parties tonight are making their last desperate effort toward to complete victory at the polls tomorrow.

Twice the Democrats have elected a governor and twice the Republicans have elected a legislative majority and the greater part of their State ticket. This year the campaign between Governor Judson Harmon and his Republican opponent, Warden G. Harding, the Marion editor, has been exceptionally bitter. Charges of graft have been leveled at State officials and employes of each party. The Republican campaign has been diversified by an animated debate between its own progressives and stand-pat orators.

While the Democrats go before the people with absolutely no mention of National affairs except their platform endorsement of Governor Harmon for President, Mr. Harding, aided by four members of the President's cabinet, has strongly urged the claim that a Republican success would be construed as an endorsement of President Taft and his administration and a Republican defeat would be a blow at the Unioan in the White House.

Dr. Wilson in New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 7.—One of the most interesting campaigns in the history of the State has been completed and tomorrow the voters of New Jersey will decide upon their choice for governor; choose ten members of the House of Representatives, and elect a legislature that on joint ballot will have the naming of a United States Senator to succeed John R. Keane, Jr.

For many years past the Republicans have been in the ascendancy in New Jersey, but with Woodrow Wilson as their candidate for governor, the Democrats have shown a renewed interest and tonight on the eve of election the Democrats are more than hopeful that they will elect Dr. Wilson as governor by a safe plurality over Vivian M. Lewis, the Republican candidate.

Mr. Lewis has the earnest support of the Republican organization, but the candidacy of Dr. Wilson and the campaign conducted by the former president of Princeton University has aroused the independent vote of the State to an extent that causes his supporters to believe that he will win.

New Jersey at present is represented in the lower house of Congress by seven Republicans and three Democrats.

Small Vote in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 7.—Only a small vote in expected to be polled tomorrow when candidates for Congress will be elected. Arkansas will likely return an unbroken Democratic delegation.

Little Interest in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—With the exception of the contest in the eighth district, between William M. Howard and S. J. Tribble, both Democrats and in the Seventh where Gordon Lee, Democrat is opposed by Walter Akerman, Republican, little interest is taken in the Georgia congressional election. A light vote is expected tomorrow.

A Word From Dix.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 7.—"I regret exceedingly," said John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor tonight, "that personalities have entered into this campaign, as it was my hope that it could have been conducted directly upon the issues. I feel that we have presented the case to the citizens of the State in a dignified manner and I am confident that the voters will decide the result in favor of the Democratic party."

Election Weather.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Fair weather during election day is predicted by the United States weather bureau so far as the greater part of the country is concerned. New York will suffer most, according to the forecast, for in the northern and western parts of that State, there will be snow flurries and the skies probably will be overcast.

Mr. Daniels' Prediction.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—The News and Observer today predicts a Democratic majority of 45,000 and the election of all Democratic candidates for Congress.

Alabama Forecast.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 7.—Indications point to 110,000 votes being polled in Alabama tomorrow. Of this Emmet O'Neal, Democrat, will get 75,000, the normal Democratic vote and the two Republican tickets will split the remainder. The prohibition element will tryé to elect a controlling number of the legislature.

Local Option an Issue.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 7.—A parade of women and children, anti-local option advocates, through the streets tonight, featured the close of the prohibition campaign in Jacksonville. The local optionists have not changed their belief that the State-wide prohibition amendment will be defeated. The prohibitionists are equally confident of victory.

In South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 7.—The night before election finds South Carolina with no political contest. It is a foregone conclusion that all Democratic nominees will be elected.

Virginia Election Interest.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—Virginia election interest centers on the ninth and fifth districts. The vote in the former will be exceedingly close. The latter will probably remain Democratic.

Tennessee Situation.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The State campaign closed tonight, with the fusion forces, led by B. W. Hooper, Republican, for Governor and B. E. Enlie, Democratic for member of the railroad commission, insisting that their ticket will have from 30,000 to 45,000 majority. Democratic leaders, who are conducting the campaign for Robert L. Taylor, for governor, and J. W. Thomas, for railroad commissioner, declare there is no doubt of a Democratic victory.
